Service Highlights:

Working parent who received referral services: “Thanks so much for letting me know that I could receive assistance from Smart Start according to my income. I was able to put my two children in child care, so I can go to work and not have to worry about my children. Thanks again.”

Family Child Care Home Business Owner: “We appreciate the Resource & Referral Agency, you all have assisted our staff for trainings in so many ways - to help our children sometimes we don’t know were to look. Thanks!”

An early care and education professional who received Technical Assistance: “I still remember doing my first professional development plan with you. It seemed so out of reach then. What a difference a goal makes.” This teacher completed her degree and is now the director of the early care and education business where she first started teaching in 2006.

Child care resource and referral (CCR&R) services across North Carolina are funded by a variety of sources including the North Carolina Division of Child Development and Early Education, local Smart Start organizations, child care, and other businesses, community agencies and private philanthropy (individual, family, corporate and community).
