Regional CCR&R Services (FY22)

Working families who received education and assistance finding child care (# of children served): 894
Child care classrooms/homes that received technical assistance to improve/maintain their quality: 96
Child care professionals who received training and professional development: 703

Service Highlights:

Teacher about training: "I really enjoyed the Connecting the Dots training, it helped me with my evaluation style of the children and helped me make lesson plans that are developmentally appropriate for the children."

Teacher about Technical Assistance: "The technical assistance process has enhanced my teaching and increased the knowledge I needed to meet the needs of the children in my classroom."

Parent who received referral services: "The [referral specialist] was very helpful. [Looking for child care] always makes you nervous, especially with a million things running through your mind. With the specialist's help in explaining things, it put my mind at ease. Thank you so much for what you do and please continue."

Child care resource and referral (CCR&R) services across North Carolina are funded by a variety of sources including the North Carolina Division of Child Development and Early Education, local Smart Start organizations, child care, and other businesses, community agencies and private philanthropy (individual, family, corporate and community).
